RESTORE, REVIVE & REJUVENATE

HOME ADDITIONS

Home additions come in all shapes, sizes, and architectural styles so there is no one-size-fits-all solution. Whether you are tackling a small room expansion or adding another level, Morgan-Keefe Builders will work closely with you to customize a space addition to your home that suits your personal style and specific needs. Why settle for a new home you don't love when you can improve the house you already have? A well-planned addition can transform a house inside and out. No moving required.

WHOLE HOUSE RENOVATIONS

Is your home feeling its age? Is it looking a little dated and in need of an uplift? At Morgan-Keefe Builders, we specialize in whole-home renovations that expose the beautiful work of art you already live in. More than just cosmetic upgrades, a whole home renovation can comprehensively transform a house and optimize its existing utility and artistry. If your old home has charm but lacks an open floor plan and the updated amenities you desire, Morgan-Keefe can collaboratively work with you to preserve and enhance your home's unique characteristics.

Just like every timeless work of art must undergo the restoration process at some point in time, so does a good home. Whether it's creating additional living spaces for entertaining or rejuvenating an older home to reflect your design preferences, Morgan-Keefe Builders partners with homeowners to transform their houses into living works of art. From design concepts to a flawless finished construction, our team will guide you through every step of the renovation process. Our goal is to not only actualize your artistic vision but to provide a collaborative and supportive process along the way.

As a premier builder in WNC and Upstate SC, we have provided exceptional craftsmanship, masterful construction, and inspirational spaces to new and renovated custom homes. Let us show you how our expertise coupled with your ideas and style can make your home a living masterpiece.

AFTER

Whether you want to add on a guest suite or remodel your aging home to better accommodate your style, Morgan-Keefe Builders embraces every detail and translates it into a beautiful work of art. Let us show you all the possibilities that your home offers and how seamless we can make the remodeling process.
